Dear Parents and Teachers,

Re: Parent Education Group's Parenting Talk on "e Generation Rap"

We are pleased and honoured to announce that Mr. Chan Tak Hang (陳德恒), a renowned educator, will be giving us the second parenting talk of the year with the following details:

Date : 9 July 2011 (Sat)
Time : 3:00 to 5:00 pm
Venue : School Hall, 3/F, HKUGA College
Topic : e Generation Rap (e 世代的挑戰)

Rap music is a hit among our children because it speaks their mind in a style of language that challenges the Establishment, also known as Parents who set up rules that are not designed to please their children. Children like Rap music also because few parents can learn and familiarize themselves with the Rap content, so parents become alienated because they cannot speak the 'language' of the children. Very similar to this situation is the extensive use of internet-based forum, like Facebook, by our children that is fast becoming a way of disconnecting parents from their world, posing a real threat from the e generation.

Mr. Chan, a former principal and vice principal of different schools in Hong Kong, is a lecturer at Hong Kong Chinese University, Hong Kong University, Hong Kong Institute of Education and Macau's Principalship Training Programs. Mr. Chan will enlighten us with his wisdom in understanding the issues promoting the e generation phenomenon and offers us suggestions to co-exist with the Rap without getting completely cut off from the next generation.

To facilitate our seating arrangement, kindly return the reply slip to us via your child's Class Teachers, or by fax to 2870-8825, or by email to info@hkugacpta.org.hk, by 29 June 2011 (Wed) to confirm your attendance.

Happy parenting/teaching and wishing all of you a refreshing and satisfying summer vacation!

Sincerely yours,
Parent Education Group
